Member-Chambers

The Federation is a strong advocate of business ownership among Filipino-Americans and provides a well-established network of trade and commerce resources for its member-chapters in the United States. Among its most senior member chambers are the Filipino Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii (since 1956) and the San Francisco Filipino American Chamber of Commerce (founded in 1973).

The Federation of Philippine American Chambers of Commerce (FPACC) has over 23 chapters with a total of over 5000 companies and is growing internationally in the Philippines, Mexico and Europe.

FPACC in the USA include: Arizona, California (Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, San Jose), District of Columbia, Florida, Hawaii (Big Island, Maui, Oahu), Illinois (Chicago), Michigan, New Jersey, Nevada, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Texas (Austin, Houston), Utah, Virginia, and Washington.

US-Philippine Partnership

FPACC has a deep partnership with the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) and its Philippines-USA Economic & Business Council (PUBC) which provide access and opportunities for the Philippine-based chambers with U.S.-based businesses through a memorandum-of-agreement between these two powerhouse organizations that encompass ongoing business-matching, collaboration, and trade missions.

Growing the trade and commerce between the US and Philippines is FPACC's cornerstone program and has been a hallmark success story. The biennial trade mission coordinated by FPACC in 2016 reached a record breaking $900 Million+ (USD) in trade partnership agreements between the B2B (business-to-business) participants from both countries.

With the Philippine's explosive growth in global economic stature, new business opportunities and investments channels are opened for Filipinos in both countries.
